

Format of Proposal Submission Form

(If additional space is required, separate sheets may be attached)

Name of your company:

Contact person with e-mail and phone number:

Address of the facility and Head Office:

List of products being manufactured with estimated market size for each:

Share of market currently captured or to be captured in India and internationally:

Any current export (Name of the product and approximate amount per year):

Plans for expanding manufacturing & exports in next 2 years. If yes, give name of the product(s) and estimated amount/year:

Past in-house experience of launching new products:

Name of the New Idea/Project:

What raw agro produce/waste/by-product do you propose to utilize for value enhancement?

Do you have technology at hand or need technology?

If technology is needed, is it available nationally or internationally or needs to be developed?

Do you have facility, civil structure, equipment and technical personnel to carry out the proposed project?

What finished product, quantity and estimated value do you propose to produce per year?

Time frame to complete the project

Are you currently engaged in similar business or is it a new business proposal?

Brief description (1000 words) of the project

Funds available and required for technology development to make the proposed product

Are there other competitors or manufacturers of the product in India or abroad?

What are the opportunities for your proposal to succeed?

Are there any intellectual property related encumbrances in carrying out the proposal?

Can your proposal become more competitive and/or viable, if you make a team with other organisations (public or private)?

Any other information/suggestions you would like to make: